

The Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs basketball team won two games at the Walker Tournament over the weekend as they beat Albany, 54-52, on Friday and rolled past Salmen 75-44 on Saturday.

The Lady Chiefs (11-4) held off Albany (11-3) Friday before steamrolling past Salmen (6-7) Saturday morning. NCHS was led by Makayla Gallien with 21 points while Akeelah Wade had 18 points.

NCHS will be back in action Friday at the Brusly Tournament when they take on undefeated Walker (16-0) at 6:30 p.m.