

Lakeview hires Seawood as football coach

NATCHITOCHEs, La. – Lakeview High School named Lawrence Seawood as the new head football coach for the 2024 season, the school announced Thursday afternoon.

Seawood was a member of the Gators' staff for 13 years before being promoted Thursday.

Seawood, a former Northwestern State Demon football player, earned a bachelor's degree in health and exercise science.

When he is not on the field, he cherishes time with his wife, Aaliyah, and their two children Lexie and Trey. He is also actively involved in The Theta Lambda Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc., where he mentors young men.

"I am honored to accept this new position," said Seawood. "The Lakeview Community has been great to me, and I can't wait to see where we can take Gator football in the coming years."

Seawood replaces former head coach Andy Boone who coached Lakeview last season (3-7).
