

The St. Mary's softball team rallied from a 5-1 hole to beat the Parkway Panthers, 15-5, Thursday afternoon at home.

The Lady Tigers (4-3) finished the game with 16 hits led by Grace Wren and Joelee Savell with three each. Kennedy Griffin, Anna Grace Mabile, Tyonnah Burton and Brooklyn Townson all had two hits each to pace St. Mary's SMH found themselves in a 5-1 hole after the first inning but quickly responded. The Lady Tigers scored six runs in the bottom of the second highlighted by a three-run double by Wren and two-run triple by Mallory LaCaze.

The Lady Tigers added to their lead with five more runs in the third inning. Savell scored on a wild pitch before Wren smoked an RBI double to center scoring Mabile. Later in the inning, Burton homered to left to make it 11-5 SMH as the Lady Tigers pulled away for the win.

St. Mary's got great work from Wren on the mound as she came in relief and pitched 5 1/3 innings allowing just one hit, one walk and striking out 10.
