

The Lakeview Gators and Lady Gators picked up blowout victories Friday night at home over Jonesboro-Hodge with the Gators winning 73-37 and the Lady Gators 58-14.

The Lady Gators (20-2, 6-0 in 3-2A) had a 20-5 lead after the first quarter and led 35-9 at halftime as they swept the season series from Jonesboro-Hodge (6-18, 1-5 in 3-2A). Lakeview was led by Timberlyn Washington and Najahe Davis with 17 points each while Amiya Marshall had 14.

The Gators (21-4, 6-0 in 3-2A) won their 10th straight game as they remain ranked number one in the Division IV non-select power rankings. Lakeview had a comfortable 30-18 lead at halftime but exploded in the third quarter, outscoring their district counterparts from Jonesboro, 26-9 in the period as they led 56-27 on their way to the win. The Gators were led by Dereon Joseph with 18 points while Andre Sowell had 17 and Alonzo Driver added 13.

The Gators and Lady Gators will host Red River Tuesday night at 'The Swamp' as district play continues.
