

Lady Gators get six named to All-District 3-2A team

After a second consecutive trip to the semifinals last week, the Lakeview Lady Gators also had five players received All-District 3-2A honors led by district MVP Timberlyn Washington.

Washington, a junior, averaged 23 points per game this year for the Lady Gators (26-4) leading Lakeview to the semifinals in Hammond, Louisiana. The Lady Gators' point guard has been named District 3-2A MVP three years in a row.

Junior Najahe Davis also got first team honors. The Lakeview guard averaged 13 points per game this year for the Lady Gators.

Alonna Henderson received second team honors while Amiya Marshall was named to the honorable mention all-district team.

Washington and Ja'Niyah Armstrong also received the district's all-defense honors.
