

The Natchitoches Central Chiefs' baseball team remained undefeated as it beat the Winnfield Tigers, 7-0, Thursday night at home.

The Chiefs (6-0) rode the arm of sophomore pitcher Owen Smith who pitched six innings allowing just three hits, striking out three and walking no one.

NCHS broke open a scoreless game in the bottom of the third inning. Smith was hit by a pitch and advanced to second a pass ball. Moments later, he scored on an RBI single to left by shortstop Brock Laird to give the Chiefs the early 1-0 advantage.

The Chiefs blew the game open in the fifth inning scoring four runs highlighted by a two-run triple by Yancy Spillman to score Titus Williams and Adam Guillet making it 5-0. The Chiefs added two more runs in the sixth inning as Smith and Laird scored on pass balls.

Next up, the Chiefs will take on Evangel in the Northwood-Shreveport Friday at 4 p.m.
