

St. Mary's hires Seastrunk as head football coach

The St. Mary's Tigers have hired Kedrin Seastrunk as head football coach, the school announced Thursday night.

Seastrunk was an assistant for the Tigers' football team the past two seasons under former head coach Aaron York. He was the defensive backs coach and the head track coach for the Tigers.

Seastrunk, prior to being hired at SMH, was an assistant football and track coach at Natchitoches Central for five years.

The Newton, Texas native played from 2004-2008 at Northwestern State as a tight end.

He was a member of the Northwestern State University football team and was called in by the Green Bay Packers where his career was cut short due to prior injuries.
