

Lady Chiefs explode for 10 runs in second inning in win over Monterey

The Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs' softball team scored 10 runs in the second inning to beat the Monterey Wolves, 20-4, Friday at Ward 10 Complex in Tioga.

The Lady Chiefs (10-9) took advantages of 11 walks by Monterey (5-10) pitching as well and scattered 10 hits led by Morgan Robinson who hit a grand slam in the second inning. Robinson, Mallory LaCour and Sydney Terrell each had two hits to lead the Lady Chiefs' attack.

Ehren Guidroz and LaCour both had three RBIs for NCHS. Lead-off batter Maggie Massia and Robinson both scored four runs each to set the table as the Lady Chiefs made short work of the Lady Wolves.

Syndi Jones started for the Lady Chiefs in the circle allowing two earned runs, six hits, one walk and struck out four in three innings.

NCHS will take on Tioga (12-3) Saturday morning at 10 a.m. back at Ward 10.
