

SMH falls to Logansport at home 6-1

The St. Mary's Lady Tigers' softball team fell at home Tuesday afternoon to the Logansport Lady Tigers, 6-1, in district 3-1A action.

The Lady Tigers (13-9, 1-2 in 3-1A) managed just two hits but fought hard for much of the game as the game was tied entering the sixth inning.

However, Logansport (18-4, 2-1 in 3-1A), ranked number one in Division IV non-select, scored two runs in the inning on an RBI walk and a sacrifice fly. In the seventh inning, the visitors scored four more runs as they belted a pair of homeruns to put the game away.

SMH starting pitcher Grace Wren competed well pitching a shutout through five innings. She finished the game allowing six earned runs, seven hits, four walks and struck out nine.

Joelee Savell and Brooklyn Townson had the only two hits for SMH while the team struck out eight times.
