

The Natchitoches Central boys' basketball team continued its winning ways with a pair of hard-fought wins on the road, 67-64, over the Winnfield Tigers and Thursday beating Anacoco, 51-43.

Tuesday, the Chiefs (10-1) were led by Logan Smith with 25 points while Ja'Dell Demery added a double-double with 14 points and 16 rebounds. Jaden Braden chipped in with 12 points and eight assists while Jacorien Beard had 12 points and eight rebounds.

Thursday night, the Chiefs defeated Anacoco as Smith led the way once again with 26 points while Braden added 13.

NCHS will look to make it eight straight wins Friday night when they take on Richwood (10-4) at 6:30 p.m. in the DeRidder Tournament.
