

Tigers fall 13-1 to Northwood-Shreveport

The St. Mary's Tigers' baseball team had their four-game winning streak snapped Saturday by the Northwood-Shreveport Falcons, 13-1, on the road.

The Tigers (13-7) managed just two hits and committed four errors defensively while the pitching staff yielded eight walks.

The Falcons (15-5) scored eight runs in the second inning as the Tigers walked six batters and made two errors allowing Northwood to pick up the huge inning.

Connor Jordan had the only RBI for the Tigers with an RBI single to left in the fifth inning to score Braylon Normand.

SMH will play Monday at 6 p.m. on the road against Catholic-Pointe Coupee (7-11).
