

Lady Tigers and Tigers win big over Ebarb at Converse Tournament

The St. Mary's Lady Tigers rolled past Ebarb Friday night at the Converse Tournament, 55-36, picking their third win of the season while the Tigers defeated Ebarb 53-43.

SMH (3-4) opened a 26-17 halftime and led 42-26 on their way to a convincing win. The Lady Tigers had four players in double figures led by Ava Errington with 17 points while Ava Holland added 12. Jakeria Guy and Lybi Cross both had 10 points helping aid the Lady Tigers to back-to-back wins. With Friday's win, the Lady Tigers have already surpassed last year's win total under second-year head coach Brooke Jones.

The St. Mary's boys (3-1) took on Ebarb immediately following the Lady Tigers' win and picked up a victory of their own. The Tigers were led by Ayden Warren who scored a game-high 30 points. Mixon Bankston added nine points and seven assists while Ben Bienvenu had eight points and 12 rebounds.

Next up, the Tigers and Lady Tigers will host Menard Tuesday night at 6 p.m.
