

The Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs softball team got just one hit in an 8-0 loss to the Ponchatoula Lady GreenWave Saturday in the LA Shootout in Lafayette.

The Lady Chiefs (5-7) hung tough early as they trailed just 1-0 after three innings. However, the GreenWave took control of the game with five runs in the fourth inning to put the game away as they finished with 13 hits.

Morgan Robinson reached base for the Lady Chiefs three times as she drew three walks. But NCHS was unable to capitalize as they managed just five base runners for the game.
