

NCHS's Stokes, Kay headline All-Cenla Volleyball Team

NATCHITOCHES, La. – The Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs' volleyball team had five players named to the 2025 All-Cenla team while head coach Mindy Stokes was named Coach of the Year and senior Tatum Kay was tabbed Offensive MVP.

Stokes, in her first season as head coach, guided the Lady Chiefs to a 32-4 record and a berth in the quarterfinals for the first time in the program's brief history (2017).

Kay finished the season with 219 kills, 163 digs and 26 aces. She was joined on the first team by seniors Ehren Guidroz and Brooklyn Smith and junior Maggie Massia. Guidroz tallied 216 kills for the year while Smith had 30 blocks. Massia earned her spot with 389 assists. Junior Kendall Rhodes was named to the second team as a libero.

St. Mary's Adelle Williams, who was named MVP of District 1, Division V, was also tabbed to the first team.

2025 All-Cenla Volleyball Team

First Team

Tatum Kay – NCHS – SR/OH

Ehren Guidroz – NCHS – SR/OH

Brooklyn Smith – NCHS – SR/MB

Maggie Massia – NCHS – JR/S

Kennedy McDaniel – Marksville – SO/OH

Katie Lachney – Marksville – SO/RS

Kristen Lachney – Marksville, SR/S

Adelle Williams – St. Mary's – JR/OH

Kimora Peoples – Leesville – SR/L

Ryleigh Morales – Many – SO/RB

MVP-OFFENSE- Tatum Kay-NCHS- (SR/OH)

MVP Defense-Katie Lachney-Marksville

Coach of The Year- Mindy Stokes-NCHS

Second Team

Kendall Rhodes – NCHS - JR/L

Olivia Edwards – Pineville – SR/Utility

Julia Cummings – Leesville – JR/OH

Kianna Mas-sa – Leesville – SR/S

Madison Rocket – ASH – SR/OH

Kylie LaRoux – Many – SR/S

Shamaie Glenn – Many SR/S

Rylee Gunter – Many – JR/L

De'aira Williams-Marksville (Sr/L)

Isabella Brossette-Marksville (So/OH)