

Seven Chiefs earn All-District 1-5A Football Honors

The Natchitoches Central football team had seven players named to the 2023 All-District 1-5A team.

On first team offense, the Chiefs were led by senior wide receiver Camryn Davis (1004 yards receiving and 14 touchdowns) and offensive lineman and LSU commit Joe Cryor.

On first team defense, senior Braylon Woods represented the Chiefs as the linebacker.

The Chiefs got two on second team offense as senior running back Zion Thompson had 914 yards rushing and 10 touchdowns which was second in the district behind Captain Shreve's Jamarlon Otis. Senior Dillon Braxton made his way on to the second team as well. The Chiefs' wide receiver had 592 receiving which was fifth in the league.

Making his way on second team defense was senior defensive back Landon Brosset. He had four games this season with 10 tackles or more and led the Chiefs' defense in total tackles.

NCHS's Owen Smith was named to honorable mention quarterback. The sophomore threw for 2350 yards and 22 touchdowns to just eight picks.
