NATCHITOCHEs, La. - The 12th-ranked Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs' volleyball team faces off against 21st ranked Airline in the first round of the Division I LHSAA Girls' volleyball playoffs Thursday night at 5:30 p.m. at home.

The Lady Chiefs (26-4) enter the playoffs red hot as they have won 12 straight matches entering the postseason. NCHS, under third-year head coach Kerri Kiracofe, haven't lost since a setback to seventh-ranked Ruston back on Sept. 26.

NCHS enters the match fully healthy after senior Tulane commit Lora Cole missed six games with an ankle injury.

Airline (24-12) comes into Thursday's match back peddling a bit. The Lady Vikings have lost four straight matches to end the regular season after winning the previous.

This will be the second meeting of the season between NCHS and Airline as the Lady Chiefs swept the Lady Vikings in Natchitoches 25-16, 25-15 and 25-20.

Fans can follow Thursday's match as a live video broadcast will be available at the Inside Natchitoches Sports facebook page.
