

SMH hires Johnny Cox and assistant boys' basketball coach

St. Mary's boys' basketball head coach Jake Bankston announced the hiring of Johnny Cox an assistant coach the Tigers this season Wednesday afternoon on the Sports on Call radio show.

Cox rejoins the St. Mary's coaching staff after several stints with the Tigers and Lady Tigers. After compiling over 450 wins as a head coach as a high school head coach for Riverdale Academy, Central School and St. Mary's, Cox returns to the bench.

Cox led the Lady Tigers to the first semifinal berth in program history in 2003

The Coshatta native led Riverdale academy to three state championships as a player before graduating from Northwestern State.
