

The St. Mary's Tigers collected 16 hits as they rolled past Byrd 18-2 Tuesday night on the road picking up their second win of the season.

The Lady Tigers (2-3) have played four straight games against 5A opponents including two against Pineville, Airline and Tuesday's game against Byrd.

SMH was led by Kennedy Griffin with three hits finishing 3-for-4 with two runs scored and an RBI. Tyonnah Burton was 2-for-2 with 4 RBIs while Brooklyn Townson was 2-for-2 with 2 RBIs.

St. Mary's used the combination of Grace Wren, who recorded her 500th career strikeout, and Rayanna Northworthy in the circle to hold the Byrd offense at bay.
