

Lady Chiefs route Southwood 15-0 to remain undefeated in district

Ehren Guidroz allowed just one hit and struck out 11 in four innings as the Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs' softball team defeated the Southwood Cowgirls, 15-0, Wednesday at home.

The Lady Chiefs (12-11, 6-0 in district 1-5A) needed just one hour and 22 minutes to pick up the run-rule victory over Southwood. NCHS two runs in the first and 10 in the second inning highlighted by Morgan Robinson's three-run homer.

Natchitoches Central had just six hits but took advantage of five Southwood errors and eight base on balls.

Robinson, Syndi Jones, Lila Robertson and Bre Hale all scored two runs for the Lady Chiefs on their way to the district win.
