

The St. Mary's Tigers' basketball team won their 20th game of the season with a win over Montgomery 46-33 while the Lady Tigers lost 62-50 Thursday night in district 3-1A action on the road.

The Tigers (20-6, 5-0 in 3-1A) are 12-1 in their last 12 games and are holding opponents to 41.7 points per game during the stretch. SMH defeated Montgomery for their fifth straight win led by Ayden Warren with 14 points while Ben Bienvenu added 13.

The Lady Tigers (11-16, 1-4 in 3-1A) lost for the third time this year to Montgomery (15-11, 2-4 in 3-1A). SMH lost a last second heartbreaker at the Lakeview Tournament to Montgomery 40-39 back on November 21. Then were edged 50-49 at the SMH Tournament before the loss Thursday night.

The Lady Tigers won't have to wait long for an attempt at revenge as SMH will host Montgomery Friday at home at 6 p.m. followed by the boys' game at 7:20 p.m.