

The Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs' softball team had its rally come up short against the Sulphur Golden Tors, 11-7, Saturday during day two of the LA Shootout in Lafayette.

The Lady Chiefs (5-6) fell behind big, 11-3, after five innings. However, NCHS pounded out 12 hits allowing them to get back into the ballgame with four runs in the sixth inning.

NCHS' Sydney Terrell hit a sacrifice fly followed by a three-run homer by Lila Robertson to pull the Lady Chiefs within four, 11-7. But the deficit was too much as NCHS committed five errors leading to eight unearned runs.

Next up, the Lady Chiefs will play against Saturday against Calvary Baptist at 3 p.m.
