

Lady Chiefs storm past Many in three sets

NATCHITOCHES, La. – The Division II second-ranked Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs' volleyball team defeated the Many Lady Tigers, 3-0 (25-21, 25-10 and 25-4) Monday night at home in non-district action at NCHS.

The Lady Chiefs (22-2) were led by Ehren Guidroz with 10 kills and three aces while Alison Key added eight kills. Tatum Kay had seven kills and four aces. Brooklyn Smith had four kills. NCHS got five aces from Maggie Massia and four from Kendall Rhodes.

Natchitoches Central has won nine of their last 10 games while Many (10-9) had a six-game winning streak snapped.

Next up, NCHS will face off against Southwood at home in district play at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday.