

Tigers, Lady Tigers fall at Hornbeck

HORNBECK, La. - The St. Mary's Tigers and Lady Tigers lost a doubleheader to the Hornbeck Hornets Thursday night in high school basketball action with the Lady Tigers losing 70-40 and the Tigers 68-25.

The Lady Tigers (2-12) fell behind 22-4 at the end of the first quarter and 40-18 at halftime and never recovered. SMS was led by Ava Hebert who scored 22 points for the Lady Tigers but the Lady Hornets were too much as they improved to 8-8.

In the boys' game, the Tigers (2-13) trailed big at halftime as well as Hornbeck jumped out to a 34-11 advantage. The Hornets improved to 11-7.

Next up, the Tigers will play on the road against Alexandria-Country Day Friday at 6 p.m.

Both the Tigers and Lady Tigers will play Monday at home against Glenbrook beginning at 6 p.m.