

The St. Mary's Tigers and Lady Tigers basketball teams swept a doubleheader against Georgetown on the road Thursday night with the Lady Tigers winning 50-11 and the Tigers 53-32.

The Lady Tigers (7-9) jumped out to a 27-9 halftime lead as Ava Errington once again led the way with 23 points for SMH while Ava Holland added 10 as the Lady Tigers cruised to the win.

The Tigers (9-5) were led by Aiden Warren with 20 points while Payne Williams added 12 points and Ben Bienvenu chipped in with 11 and grabbed 12 rebounds.

Next up, the Tigers and Lady Tigers will play in the ASH Tournament Friday and Saturday Dec. 29th and 30th.

The Lady Tigers will face Avoyelles Public Charter Friday at 2:30 p.m. and Saturday at 2:30 against Pitkin with both games being played at Pineville High School.

The Tigers will face LaGrange Friday at 1 p.m. at and Northside Friday at 5:30 p.m. with both games being played at Alexandria Senior High.